CHAPTER 216.

Passed March 9, 1864.

AN ACT to make valid certain proceedings of George Moore and Thomas B. Moore, Executors of William H. Acworth, deceased, late of Somerset county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, William H. Acworth did constitute George Moore and Thomas B. Moore, Executors of his last will and testament, and his personal estate was insufficient to discharge his debts, whereby his realty was liable to sale, and great loss would have resulted to his devisees; and said Executors, with the assent of most of his creditors, and his devisees of full age, did cut and sell quantities of timber, wood and sawed logs, (for the purpose of exonerating said real estate, and benefiting his devisees,) from the real estate of said testator, and have applied the same to the extinction of said liabilities; wherefore, Proceedings made valid.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said proceedings of said George and Thomas B. Moore, Executors as aforesaid, are hereby made valid, and they are hereby authorized to cut additional timber, wood, sawed logs and staves, from the real estate of said testator, till
